Dear John:

Thank you for your letter of May 23, cosigned by seventy-six of your colleagues, urging the President to give high priority to the issue of human rights during his discussions with General Secretary Mikhail Gorbachev and, in particular, to raise the case of Raoul Wallenberg.

We appreciate being advised of your interest in this matter. Since the President has already left Washington en route to Moscow, we will see to it that your views are transmitted to appropriate Administration officials. You will receive a more detailed response in the near future.

Again, thank you for taking the time to write.

With best wishes,

Cordially,

Alan M. Kranowitz
Assistant to the President

The Honorable John Edward Porter
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515
